COURSE DESCRIPTION
Leadership is a complex process by which the leader influences others to perform and achieve. This course provides the basis for understanding what leadership is and what leaders do to be successful. This is a highly interactive course based on the application of theoretical concepts of leadership to practical situations. Analysis of different important leaders, audiovisual material and case studies will be used extensively during the course to develop the leader within each student.
COMPETENCES ASOCIATED WITH THE PROFILE
LEARNING OUTCOMES
Students will recognize and identify personality characteristics of a leader based on the leadership trait questionnaire, leadership behavior questionnaire and leadership skills questionnaire. Students will determine their own strengths and weaknesses in leadership and how to improve and overcome them.
KEY CONTENT
TEACHING AND EVALUATION METHODOLOGIES
The course is based on the studies and findings from the book Leadership Theory and Practice by Peter Northouse. Students will be responsible for reading and analyzing units. All units have discussions and case study analysis.
